Special pet related holidays that recognizes the special role that dogs, cats, and other pets play in our lives. DOGTIPPER features fun pet holidays as well as serious pet awareness days and weeks that focus attention on challenges in the pet world.

When you think of Labor Day, what comes to mind? For many, it's the last long weekend before school starts. It's a weekend with picnics and barbecues, and maybe a parade. For some, it's the start of the fall season and anticipation of football.

Like many other holidays, American's enjoy the day off but have lost sight of what it was originally created to celebrate.

It's kennel cough season. Kennel cough is basically a cold that dogs get and it's spread just like human colds -- through the air and through direct contact with infected dogs. The symptoms are the same as the common cold in humans -- coughing, fever and lack of appetite but for dogs, kennel cough can be much more serious. If your dog is hacking away or constantly making noises that make it sound like he's choking on something, kennel cough may be the culprit.
